Regulations for Club-Team Competitions

European Football League EFL

EFAF Cup

Season 2012 and forward

§ 1 Definition of the Competition

These regulations are valid for all competitions, games, friendly games etc., a member-club of an EFAF member federation takes part. Exceptions are only possible in single cases by proceeding decision of EFAF or in case of additional EFAF Club-Team Cups or Tournaments.

A) EFAF Competitions

The European Football League EFL and the EFAF Cup Competition are annual invitational tournaments for American Football teams representing EFAF member federations.

For EFL participation teams should have obtained the title of Champion or Vice-Champion either in EFAF member federations national, championships, league and/or recognised International competitions. The Eurobowl is the final game of the EFL to determine the winner of the league and the venue for the Final, the semi- and the quarter-finals shall be determined by the EFAF Board.

For EFAF Cup Competition participation teams must be well organized, financially solid and from sport side successfully playing clubs of their national highest league, but usually not national Champion or Vice-Champion. The EFAF Cup is the final game to determine the winner and the venue for the Final and the semi-finals shall be determined by the EFAF Board.

Moreover and besides teams mentioned before EFAF is authorized to provide wildcards to teams.

B) Participation in Club-Team Competitions

1) The National Champion or at least the National Vice Champion shall participate in club team competitions. The only exemption from this rule is for teams from federation who do not participate with any national team in any of the EFAF tackle national team competitions.

2) The National Champion of a federation has to participate at EFL if:

- The national team finished on the Medal ranks of EFAF European Championship Series for National Teams A-Group and/ or
- At least one team of that federation finished in the last EFL season at least at EFL – EURO BOWL Semi Finals

The National Champion of all other federations has to participate at EFAF Cup with the only exemption for the National Champion of those federations who do not have any tackle national team activity junior or senior.

If a club qualified according this rule will not enter the tournament the team is qualified for, the club has to pay a fine of 5.000 EUR for EFL non-participation and a fine of 1.250 EUR for EFAF Cup non-participation to EFAF.

Federation may nominate another team to replace the team not entering the tournament. Federation will be given a two-week notice after the final entry deadline for the club team tournament, during this time the federation may replace the team with no penalty fee. Not applicable if the club not participating is the national champion. The national champion may be replaced but the national champion has still to pay a fine. The fine may be reduced by EFAF to 50% of the originally set fine. If a club team decides not to enter a tournament it has qualified for, the club team will be given an automatic one (1) year ban from the international games whether tournament, league, exhibition or another game like event including but not limited to senior, youth, ladies and flag teams. The one (1) year ban will be calculated from the entry deadline date of the club team competition.

Federation of the banned club team may send a written request of the club team to EFAF Board of Directors in order to avoid the ban. This may be done at any time before or after the ban has taken its effect. EFAF Board of Directors may decide to not ban a team if there are acceptable financial or other reasons for non-participation. EFAF Board of Directors decision is not subject to an appeal.

If the club does not pay the fine he is banned for all international activities until the fine is settled. The minimum ban is for that year in which the club was qualified to participate in club competition whether the fine is paid or not.

According to Article 18 § 2 of EFAF statutes federations are liable for all financial obligations of their clubs.

§ 2 General Provisions & Financial Requirements

The team shall be entered by their national federation who shall ensure that it is possible for them to combine their season games and EFL games. The federations and teams participating in the tournament shall undertake to observe the regulations as well as the decisions taken by the EFAF authorities.

All of the official requirements in these Rules and Regulations, the application forms, the minimum game requirements for arena and field, the EFAF-45men-roster-form, the EFAF starting line up form etc. are part of these rules here and must be followed by the game host/organizer/club and are valid automatically by entering the tournaments.

A) Deadline: 31st October of the year prior the tournament-year. The participating teams shall provide:

- 1) A signed contract/application form including exclusion from liability clause, thus confirming their entry in the EFL/Eurobowl or EFAF CUP Tournament and acceptance of all Rules & Regulations. This document has to include an official address of the club (postal and e-mail address)

If the fine is not settled then EFAF can claim the outstanding debt and any additional legal cost by raising financial claims in a civil court. National Federation / Association to pay in case of default. If the club does not pay the fine he is banned for all international activities until the fine is settled. This fine does not prevent the opponent or other clubs participating in the same EFAF competition to claim for further financial costs caused by the refusal of the club.

§ 4 Financial Provisions

A) Each team shall retain its receipts and shall bear all the organisation expenses. The visiting team shall assume its own expenses for travelling, board and lodging unless the two teams concerned have concluded a different agreement. The provisions of § 9 and § 13 must be observed. It is possible for a promoter to enter into a separate contractual agreement with EFAF specifically for the organisation of a Tournament for the Qualification Round, the winner of which shall qualify for the Quarterfinals.

B) The organising/home team or party shall bear the expenses of travelling, board and lodging of the game officials. The game officials shall also be paid an allowance per event of € 60,00 for the period spent away from home. The travelling expenses and an allowance of maximum two days shall be paid/reimbursed at the latest before the game officials depart from the game. The assignment of game officials shall be done to limit the travelling expenses as much as possible and they shall be provided twin bedded rooms in a suitable Hotel. The assignment of game officials will be the sole responsibility of the EFAF Officiating department. The assigned officials from the home country will be paid according to the regulations of the national federation for assignments inside their own home country.

C) The organizing/home team or party has to bear the expenses of the EFAF Game Observer's travelling from the hotel to the field and back and also to provide him updated directions to the stadium via email send to Efaf Office at least two -weeks in advance.

D) The hosting team shall reimburse the travelling team for their travel cost based on the air distance (one way) between the nearest international airports according to IATA-distances. The amount is a flat fee of € 1.600,00 plus € 1,60 per kilometre (Maximum pay-out is € 5.500,00.) in EFL/Eurobowl competition.

In EFAF Cup basically travelling compensation is decided between the clubs in a written and signed contract till December 15th the year before the competition is played and forwarded to EFAF till December 15th. The contract details are not guaranteed by EFAF but by the negotiating clubs. If there is no written contract fixed till the end of December 15th a total fee of € 1.600,00 is to be paid to the visiting team and valid automatically. A total fee of € 1.600,00 is set for EFAF Cup Semi-final and Final. This rule applies from the beginning of each tournament.

E) Additional Financial Conditions for EFL and EFAF-Cup Semi-finalists and Finalists and EFL Quarter-finalists:

- 1) Home team/promoter has to provide a maximum of 1 night accommodation (27 twin rooms 2 singles)
- 2) 3 meals/day for maximum 56 members of each team - 45 players, 11 coaches/officials
- 3) Alternatively to the above-mentioned positions 1) and 2) home team or promoter can decide two weeks in advance of the final latest to pay € 2.800,00 to the guest team instead of lodging and fooding. This decision has to be forwarded both to the away team and the EFAF Tournament Director two weeks in advance latest. If there is no information, 1) and 2) are automatically the option.
- 4) The above-mentioned provisions are not guaranteed by EFAF but by the promoter / organizer or the home team.

F) The EFL tournament, the Eurobowl and the EFAF Cup competition and all rights up to and including the Eurobowl and EFAF Cup Final are the property of EFAF.

The following fees are required to grant rights to host team/promoters hosting games as follows:
Rights (Sanctioning) Fee

- 1) Group or Qualification Games- No rights (sanctioning) fees.
- 2) Quarter-finals- Host team or promoter – EFL: € 3.000 plus VAT
- 3) Semi-finals- Host team or promoter – EFL: € 6.000,00 / EFAF Cup: 1.500,00 plus VAT
- 4) Finals- Host team or promoter – Eurobowl: € 10.000,00 / EFAF Cup: 3.000,00 plus VAT.

Please Note: All Sanctioning fees must be paid prior to date of game, failure will result in EFAF recovering the sanctioning fee from teams bank guarantee. EFAF decides which team or promoter is the host of semi-final or final. Hosting team or promotor has the duty to arrange, organize etc. the game following EFAF's decision.

Up to 20 tickets for EFAF in the best category seats, upon request made by EFAF, for every EFL game including VIP access.

Teams may mutually agree to other commercial arrangements concerning their own financial matters. The above specified amounts shall be payable in cash one hour prior to kick-off (except EFAF sanctioning fees). If the payment has not been made at that time, the home team will lose the game and will be held responsible for the visiting team's costs. Additional to these refunds the home team will be object to further EFAF sanctions and fines. Any agreement made between teams should be submitted to EFAF for information purposes only.

Contract details negotiated between clubs are not guaranteed by EFAF but by the negotiating clubs. If a club uses a marketing or promotion and/or profit organisation for its game presentations the club has a contractual relationship to, the club cannot point out towards EFAF, if one or more duties are not fulfilled, that it would be not a team but an organisations duty.

§ 5 EFL

EFL is a trademark owned by American Football Verband Deutschland (AFVD). AFVD has allowed EFAF to use the trademark. The right can be revoked by AFVD at any time. In that case the Team is not anymore allowed to use the trademark. Team will have no right to claim compensation from EFAF. Teams are not allowed to sell merchandising, TV-rights, etc. of EFL or of the EFL logo. Those rights exclusively belong to EFAF and AFVD. Teams have to fix an EFL patch of the leagues logo on the left (looking from the front) shoulder of each participating team jersey. Teams can print the league logo on cards, papers, brochures, posters, etc. Teams are not allowed to produce pins with the EFL logo.

EFAF will provide the EFL patches to the teams on costs of the teams. Teams who had played EFL in the season before and who still have the EFL patches in use from that year will only receive patches on demand base.

EFAF will provide EFAF flags, which have to be hoisted in the stadium to the teams on costs of the teams (in 2009 only applicable to EFL § EFAF CUP semi finals and final game, in 2010 in addition applicable to all EFL games and in 2011 applicable to all EFL & EFAF Cup Games).

§ 6 Game System

EFL/Eurobowl and the EFAF CUP are divided into regions. The qualification round of the tournament may vary in format. A one game knockout format will be employed for the EFL/Eurobowl and the EFAF Cup Tournament from the Semi-Final round and forward. EFAF shall have as its aim to reduce the travelling distances and the team's costs and at the same time gain as much as possible public and commercial benefit or interest for the teams and the tournament.

Reserve teams can be appointed by EFAF Tournament Director. Reserve teams shall comply with the regular application form and registration procedures.

EFAF shall before and no later than the December 15th year prior the tournament-year, publish a final schedule for the Tournaments. Exceptions from those dates have to be decided by the EFAF Tournament Director.

§ 7 Eligibility of Players

Deadline 30 days prior to the first game, but at least till March 31st in the tournament-year, a 60-man roster is to be presented to EFAF. The only method of communication for the submission of rosters is via e-mail and all rosters must conform to the EFAF standard to include seven columns to include players numbers ascending in order from 1 to 99, name – Last name First name, Nationality, Position, Height, Weight, and Previous program as per EFAF roster attached in the regulations. Until 14 days before the first game in the tournament the club has to deliver the 60-man roster with valid and season lasting jersey numbers. The numbers have to be the same on home and away shirts. A maximum of four players is allowed to change numbers in urgent and understandable cases from game to game (failure will incur a fine up to € 1.000).

All rosters will be posted on the EFAF Website for public scrutiny. The roster shall include name, date of birth, and a written confirmation from the respective national federation that the players listed have the necessary license to play for that team.

Deadline two -hours prior to the game to be communicated before the game by handing over 5 printed valid game day rosters (Head Coaches report form) and starters line-up list to the EFAF Game Observer.

- 1) An EFAF game day roster is submitted and limited to 45 players with a maximum of 3 Americans as defined USA, Canadian, Mexican or Japanese passport holders. These three players may all be on the field at the same time.
- 2) Both teams must submit eleven starters for offense and eleven starters for defence on EFAF starting line-up list.

Each team shall on game day indicate, on the Head coaches report form, the names of players and their staff. The EFAF Game Observer will request presentation of a passport or Government accepted identity card of each player 75 minutes prior to kickoff for the away and 60 minutes for the home team. In the case of no EFAF Observer being present the head game official will carry the above identity check.

Identity documents must be a passport or a government accepted document, which includes photograph, date of birth and nationality. Players without Identity documents will NOT play – driver licence is no valid ID-document.

Only those players who are eligible to play for their club's (senior-) team and registered as a licensed player in the (senior-) team are eligible. The teams have to prove that each player is registered and licensed by their national federation/association. A player registered for the teams 60-man roster will lose his eligibility for the Eurobowl tournament in the year of that competition, if transferring or playing for any other team under the EFAF member federations after the march 31st roster-deadline.

Exceptions to the above provisions may be granted if a former team player has been playing for another team in other competitions than an EFAF competition and is registered and licensed in his original team who is competing in the tournament. Application for an exception in the above-mentioned case shall be forwarded to the EFAF office at the latest one month before the game. The decision made by EFAF is final and no appeals may be lodged against such decision.

Violation of this regulation can lead to the teams or players disqualification and/or of a fine of no more than € 2.500,00

§ 8 EFL/EUROBOWL and EFAF CUP Tournament Format

On or before December 15th the year prior the tournament EFAF should issue a final EFL/Eurobowl and EFAF Cup Tournament Schedule.

Date: _____ Host Team _____ Vs. Visitor Team _____ Location of Game _____

§ 9 Organisation– Responsibilities

The Board of Directors shall appoint a Tournament Director and/or outside organisation to serve as organiser and/or promoter of the tournament.

The EFAF Director of Officiating shall appoint and assign and be responsible for all matters concerning the officiating of the competition (further information in § 12 and § 15). Game Observers will be appointed by the EFAF Tournament Director. If no Game Observer is appointed or present at the game, the Head Referee automatically takes over the Game Observers obligations. The Game Observer will be the official representative of EFAF and have the responsibility to control player identifications and eligibility, the field/arena and the security measures (further information in § 13). Infractions of the Competition Regulations shall be reported to the EFAF Game Observer who will take necessary action at the game site and forward a game report to Tournament – Director. The EFAF Game Observer will take a copy of the EFAF game regulations and the Game Observer Form with them to the game. Game Observers duty is to return completed Game Observer Form and Head Coaches report form (§ 7) to EFAF Tournament Director within 24 hours of the game.

The teams are responsible for the behaviour of their players, officials, members, and of any person fulfilling a position or function on behalf of the team.

The games may be played either on the ground of the home team or on another ground in the same or in another city of that country. If the game is being played in another city the venue is subject to approval by EFAF. Game fields must be nominated 60 days prior to the Competition. A subsequent change of venue, the host/home team is responsible to pay the additional cost incurred by the visiting team. All venue changes must be sanctioned by EFAF and must be no later than 7 day's prior to game date.

Game Results:

The home teams have to call the EFAF Tournament Director maximum two hours after the game ends to report final score/quarter score/spectators amount.

Home-designated team must e-mail the result of the game and a short press release (about one page in English language) with statistics (statistics as a duty for EFL/Eurobowl Competition and EFAF Cup - and for all others from 2010 season on -) by the day following the game, 6pm CET, to the EFAF Tournament Director.

Failure to call or to send in the game result and the scorers or the press release or the statistics in English language on time will incur a € 100 fine for the first offense – for each further the fine will be doubled.

The organising team or federation shall be responsible for order and security before, during and after the game. The team/federation may be called to account for incidents and also may be penalised. The organising team/federation shall in all cases indemnify EFAF, so far as legally possible free from legal responsibility in respect of all claims for damages caused by the organisation of the game. The organisers of the games must take out necessary insurance, and in particular third party liability. If a team does not own the stadium, the realm of responsibility must be clarified with the stadium owner.

§ 10 Program of Fixture

The dates for the games in the Competitions shall be agreed and approved by EFAF tournament director and be presented with the final schedule. EFAF will co-ordinate the game dates with the teams and their national federation in accordance to the dates mentioned in § 9.

The location and hour of kick-off of the game shall be confirmed in writing by all hosting teams to EFAF tournament director at the latest 30 days prior to the game. EFAF tournament director will approve the location and kick-off time for games not confirmed within the deadline. Teams who do not follow such a ruling are deemed to be refusing to play and will be subjected to a fine according to § 3.

§ 11 Laws of the Game

The games shall be played in conformity with the NCAA rules of the year prior the tournament with the following specified exceptions:

The game time is 48 minutes divided into 4 x 12 minute quarters (game and seconds clock see § 13 5.4.).

No game can end with a tied score (NCAA Tie-breaker) with the exception in a home and away format a game can end in a tie.

Team – ranking in groups, for round-robin-systems and for knock-out-systems played in two games (e.g. home and away game).

If two or more teams have won an equal number of games, the team with the highest difference between scored points and allowed points will be ranked best.

If two or more teams show the same “point difference”, the ranking follows the number of scored points.

If two or more teams show the same “point difference” and have scored the same number of points, the ranking follows the number of points allowed.

If two or more teams show the same “point difference” and the same number of scored and allowed points, a coin-toss will decide the ranking. Exception: in the home and away format a NCAA Tie-breaker will be played instead of the coin toss immediately following the second game.

Player Ejection: Any player ejected from the game will not be eligible to play in their team’s next game in this competition.

The official method of communication for all EFAF Competitions is via e-mail or fax. All teams must have access to e-mail service or they will be determined ineligible for competition.

The official language for all EFAF competitions is English as per EFAF Statutes Article 19.
